Competition Format

Qualifying Stage

The qualifying stage will be drawn prior to the start of the competition and will be available online at www.OLDOWENSFC.CO.UK. There will be four groups of 5 or 6 teams. Each team will play each other in its group once.

Three points will be awarded for a win and 1 for a draw. Positions will be determined by the following criteria:

- 1) Points scored
- 2) Goal Difference
- 3) Goals Scored

The top two teams from each group qualify for the Cup competition and the third and fourth placed teams will be entered into the Old Owens 6's Shield. The bottom four teams will be excluded from the remainder of the competition.

Knockout Stage

The knockout stages for both competitions will consist of three rounds. The winning teams will progress whilst the losing team will be knocked out of the competition. In the event of a draw the game will be decided on penalties.

John Sullivan

I would like to say a big thanks to the captains for organising and the players involved today for turning out for this special celebratory football tournament.

The 400th anniversary of Dame Alice Owen's School is as good a reason as any for the great, good and indifferent footballers to come together in a reunion to determine who the greatest ever year was. Of course such comparisons will always wrangle on and the legs may have gone on some of the 1990's leavers whilst the more recent leavers are surely too raw to mount a challenge.

The favourites must be the Class of 2011, captained by Party Animal Josh Thomson and containing many of the team that won the ESFA Cup as Year 9 in 2007. Other contenders include the Class of 2003 (David Breeze) and the Class of 2005 (Iain Salt) who not only had strong years but should now be in their playing prime.

Although a cliché, of course today is not about the winning but the taking part. Although we have inevitably had some late drop outs but to have got 14 entrants from the last 20 school years is pretty impressive. It is testament to the calibre of pupils that Owens produces that so many have made the effort and are proud to return to celebrate it being 400 years since Dame Alice just missed being taken out by that arrow. Without meaning to sound too sentimental, Owens is a special school that we should all be proud to have attended and to be playing a part of its history today.

Special thanks to those who have helped me organise this event; Paul Kennedy, Ian Breeze and Adam Cotton for digging into the picture archives and finding teams last minute random players.

Cautions & Sending Offs

Any player that is cautioned shall leave the field of play for 2 minutes or to the end of the game whichever is less (the two minute period will be increased to 3 minutes in the knock out stages). The 'sin bin' period will be exclusive of stoppage time.

Any player sent off shall miss the remainder of that match and the following game, except in cases of violent conduct (against an opponent or the referee) where suspension will be increased to cover the remainder of the tournament.

Players suspended from games shall present themselves to the referee before the game(s) in which they are suspended such that the referee can ensure the suspension has been served. Failure to do so could lead to a side being excluded from the remainder of the tournament.

Any VIOLENT BEHAVIOUR between teams will result in both sides being EXPELLED from the competition

Any player / team found using DRUGS will be immediately expelled from the competition and escorted off the premises

Serious Foul Play

Should any player deliberately prevent a goal scoring opportunity by taking the opponents legs away or holding him back, the offending player will be sent from the field of play. (This is at the referee's discretion). This also applies to any goalkeeper who deliberately handles the ball outside of their area or brings the opposing player down.

To prevent unsportsmanlike play

A player receiving the ball from his goalkeeper by whatever means, cannot pass it straight back to his goalkeeper. It must be touched by another player beforehand. Failure to observe this rule will result in an indirect free kick from where the ball was played.

Heading the ball

Players are permitted to head the ball at any time.

Law 15: Throw-ins

There will be no throw-ins. When the ball leaves the field via the touch line it shall be returned by a underarm roll-in from the point where it crossed the line in any direction by a player opposite to that of the player who last touched it except when the last person to touch the ball is the goalkeeper (see law 9 above).

Corners will also be rolled in.

Competition Rules

Owens 6-a-side tournament

The laws of the game of association football shall apply with the exception of the following:

Law 1: Field Of Play

The field of play will be 60m long by 40m wide.

Penalty spot – a penalty spot shall be placed 6m from the centre of each goal

Law 3: No. of Players

- The match shall be played by two teams consisting of not more than 6 players, one of whom will be a goalkeeper and four named substitutes
- The maximum number of players allowed on the field at any one time is six per team (penalty for infringement – penalty against the team fielding more than six players)
- The number of substitutes permitted during the game is unlimited. Teams should get permission from the referee before making substitutes. Players entering the field may only do so once the retiring player has left the field of play and must enter the field of play at the half way line. (Penalty for infringement – indirect free kick).

Law 7: Duration of the Game

The duration of the game will vary dependant on the stage of the competition. (See competition format)

Law 9: Start Of Play

- a) Play shall be started by a kick off from the centre point.
- b) After a goal has been scored, the game shall be restarted by kick-off from the centre point by the side that has just conceded a goal.

Law 9: Ball In And Out Of Play

The ball shall be deemed in play at all times from the start of the game unless:-

- a) The whole of the ball crosses the goal line or the touch line.

- b) The game has been stopped by the referee

When the whole ball passes over the touchline either on the ground or in the air, it shall be returned in accordance with revised law 15 (see below)

When the ball leaves the field via the goal-line it shall be returned via a corner if the last person to touch the ball was a defender (not including the goalie), otherwise it shall be returned by the goalie.

When the last person to touch the ball before leaving the field of play is the goalkeeper, it shall be returned to the goalkeeper.

Over head height is allowed.

Goalkeepers are allowed to use their feet to kick the ball.

Law 11: Offside

There is no offside.

Law 12: Fouls & Misconduct

Free kicks

All opposing players must stand at least two yards from the ball for all free kicks against them.

Play in the goal area

Outfield players are allowed in the area and goalkeepers are allowed out of the goal area.
